CREW WHO'S WHO

Isabella Hassell

Director

Ms. Isabella is a passionate teacher of voice, piano, and theatre. She has been involved in music and theatre for as long as she can remember. Ms. Isabella has performed in numerous plays, musicals, and operas throughout her life. In addition to being on stage, she also worked behind the scenes as a stage manager, lighting operator, and director. Ms. Isabella recently moved to the Dallas area to pursue higher education, a performance career, and to share her love of the arts with young artists. She enjoys teaching all different kinds of music and theatre classes. She believes that creating relationships with her students through their shared love for music and the arts is the most rewarding and fulfilling part of teaching. Ms. Isabella strives to create a positive learning environment where students are encouraged to grow their confidence and skills. Above all else, Ms. Isabella seeks to honor and glorify God in everything that she does.

Mia Rosales

Assistant Director

Ms. Mia is a passionate advocate for the arts and has dedicated her career to harnessing the transformative power of the arts, particularly musical theatre, to connect with and inspire students. Her journey into teaching began in therapeutic arts, where she worked with students with disabilities, helping them learn and find joy in musical theatre. This laid the foundation for her lifelong mission to use the arts as a means of empowerment and expression. She is dedicated to creating a supportive and inclusive environment where each student can thrive and express themselves through the arts.

CREW WHO'S WHO

Karter Hennigan

Tech Director

Karter is currently studying at the University of North Texas, pursuing a Bachelor's in Media Arts with a minor in Studio Art. She is passionate about all things technical, with experience in camera operation, broadcasting, technical directing, audio mixing, and lighting. Karter enjoys working with students, teaching them the inner workings of theater production. In addition, she and our tech students have constructed props, costumes, and set pieces for our play. You can find her backstage, helping bring the magic of theater to life. In her free time, Karter loves drawing and painting, playing the trumpet, discussing film, and spending time with her dogs.

Charles Gardner

Producer

Charles is the Director of Education at New Song School of the Arts. With a background as a high school band director, he brings a wealth of experience and leadership to our team. His guidance and support have been invaluable throughout every stage of this production, ensuring its success behind the scenes.
